The Madrid Bar Association (ICAM) will be celebrating the European Union Law Summit for Legal Professionals on November 16th and 17th, 2023.

SUMMIT GOALS AND TOPICS

The Summit aims to:

- Bring European Union law closer to legal professionals from a cross-cutting perspective.
- Increase the knowledge about EU law.
- Disseminate its influence and regulatory impact in Spain.
- Address the main medium and long-term challenges facing the European Union.

The Summit will address topics such as the European Green Deal, the EU Artificial Intelligence Act, the EU's relationship with Latin America, the health of the Rule of Law in the EU, and the European Pact on Migration and Asylum, among many others.

FORMAT AND PARTICIPANTS

Through a wide range of institutional events, expert panels, and meetings with national and international authorities, the Summit will also provide an initial assessment of the Spanish Presidency in the Council of the EU.

To achieve this, the Summit will count on the participation of prestigious personalities and jurists in the European field, ambassadors, high representatives of Spanish and European authorities, representatives of international legal organizations, and presidents of European bar associations. From the private sector, national and international lawyers, legal advisors, and corporate counsel will participate, providing an excellent opportunity to highlight the commitment to the development of EU law and international collaboration between the public and private sectors.

STRUCTURE AND CONTENT

The summit will take place over two days and will include institutional events, expert panels, and meetings with national and international authorities.

It is projected to hold a total of 250 people, with three simultaneous sessions and a main auditorium for the opening and closing plenaries.

BENEFITS FOR SPONSORS

The European Union Law Summit offers sponsors the opportunity to:

- Establish long-term relationships with leaders and decision-makers in the European regulatory field.
- Conduct networking sessions with national and international authorities and stakeholders in the private sector on strategically important legal issues for the industry.
- Exchange ideas and strategies with other professionals in an informal setting.
- Benefit from the exposure of the European Law Summit in the context of the Spanish Presidency of the Council of the EU.
- Attend conferences with top-level experts addressing the latest legal and professional issues and their impact on Spain and other EU member states.
- Work towards the development of EU law

PARTNERS

The Madrid Bar Association is the main organizer of this Summit, but it will be supported by public and private institutions for the organization of the event.

Specifically, the Madrid Bar Association will collaborate with the Legal Services of the European Commission, the Honorable City Council of Madrid, and the Regional Government of Madrid.

The following institutions will also be asked for support: the Representation of the European Parliament in Madrid, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the European Union, and Cooperation (MAEC), the Ministry of Justice, the General Council of Spanish Lawyers (CGAE), and ICEX Spain Export and Investment, among others.
